

Spending some Time

for Ensemble

Isabella Zeher

July 2020

Let's waste time!

Feeling time passing by.

Becoming aware of your limited existence.

Perceiving the presence of the others.

Dwelling with each other and concentrating on yourself.

All performers performing for themselves.

For any kind and number of instruments.

The notation indicates directions of the following pitches.

The dot indicates the new level:

In case you took a higher tone (than the tone before),

this higher level is the new reference point;

and the arrow tells you where to go now —

upward or downward.

Sounds connected by a bow: sounds are repeated.

Fermata: silence between one line and the other one.

Each performer playing one line after the other.

Any tempo.

Any register.

The piece begins with the entry of the first person.

The piece concludes with silence after the last performer has finished the last line.
